

JUNE 2022

- 1 (2 lb) wild caught skin on salmon
- zest of 1 lemon
- ½ t lemon juice
- 1-inch fresh ginger, grated
- 2 t of cilantro, finely chopped
- 1 t of black pepper and kosher salt
- ¼ C low sodium soy sauce
- 2 T agave honey

Soak the cedar plank in water for 3 hours before grilling. Mix the ingredients with whisk into a bowl and rub on the salmon adding the extra soy mixture on top of the fish. Heat the grill to medium heat. Lay the cedar plank on grill for a nice char. Flip the cedar plank over and place the salmon, skin down on the charred side and grill for 15 minutes, or until the salmon is cooked to your liking. You will love the flavors!

GINGER-SOY CEDAR PLANK SALMON My Wine Recommendations:

Domaine Lathuiliere Gravallon Les Extremes Beaujolais Villages (red)– crisp and expressive aromas and flavors of ripe red berries, nice weight in mouth. ($21.95 – Total Wine)

Jordan Chardonnay Russian River Valley (white)– a touch of oak, white flowers and ripe apple combine to create nuances of a rich taste. ($32.95 – Total Wine)

CITY OF A MILLION DREAMS - JASON BERRY
Jason Berry is a current customer of ours, has been for some time. I was elated when he originally called at the office to talk about his latest book that has been published. He ended up coming in to meet me and brought me a signed copy!

Jessica's Book Corner

City of a Million Dreams is a historical look on our city for the tricentennial, 300 years of our history. The history that Berry takes us through starts with Bienville and leads us all the way up to Hurricane Katrina and Mitch Landrieu's assistance in the takedown of certain confederate statues in the city. Most of the book looks at the spectacular funerals that are held in New Orleans, specifically noted as Jazz Funerals. Berry shows us how jazz shaped our history, and even today, jazz is our soul.

I recommend reading this book for anyone who is looking to learn more about the city, or a beginner wanting to know about New Orleans. We have such a history and culture, that I would recommend anyone reading up as we are an interesting story. Berry's novel is only just over 300 pages and includes photos from all timelines of our history. There is also a film documentary that Berry has produced that he also recommends for more information in addition to his novel.

If you wish to learn more, look out for the Facebook post for this month and I will include some articles that Jason Berry had provided me with, including the trailer for the documentary.

Getting TIPS-y w/ Josh

SUMMERTIME, SUMMERTIME

It's almost that time of the year again where we prepare for family outings. It will be hot with lazy afternoons and muggy nights. For many of us, it's time to create space in our homes for all of the fun summer things. When you come to your storage unit, make sure to stop in the office to see us and grab a cold bottle of water!

WHO DAT?! with Chris

Hello WHO DAT FANS!

It's been an outstanding offseason for the Saints with the NFL Draft & the Signing of Tyrann Mathieu & Jarvis Landry! The sky's the limit for this team I cannot wait for the season to kickoff. Please stop by the front office so we can discuss this even further.
Geaux Saints!!

Ready for the longest day of the year? Summer begins June 21st!

Don't forget... Father's Day is June 19th!
